Dedication

These nuggets are dedicated to all 21st century single ladies and those yet to come, with the hope that it will help them in molding their mind and guide their lifestyle.

Who is Esther?

Esther is the name of a bible character who became famous for her emergence as queen in a foreign land and for her courage in preserving the life of her people. She was bold to do the impossible, even if it costs her life. She was beautiful, intelligent, bold, obedient and God fearing, though she was Queen. Her story is inspiring and her lifestyle is worthy of emulation. I thought it honorable to address all the ladies reading this piece as ESTHER.

The bible book of ESTHER provides detailed story of Queen Esther.

Foreward

I will like to tell you about a young damsel. She is a queen; blessed and only meant for the top. He that finds her finds favor. Her prize is more than rubies, gold or even diamond. She is priceless and valuable. She is bold, elegant and GOD fearing. That damsel is you, ESTHER.

DEAR ESTHER, the LORD has set you on high and you are HIS treasure. Do not allow the present circumstances and situations change who you are or bring you down from the elevated position GOD has placed you.

The nuggets in this book are priceless gift to you. if read and applied, they will help you stand out, stand tall and be the standard the world is waiting for.

Happy Reading!

ESTHER CHIBUZOR

Foreward

Dear Esther is a masterpiece.
Seemed to me like an elder brother telling his younger sister truths she needs to hear to soar in life.

I didn't have an elder brother, so trust me when I say every young lady, both single and married needs Dear Esther.

Truths in its simplest form. Nuggets like tablets to be taken once a day for a profitable and easy life.
I love it.

Mrs Adaeze G. Ebenezer

About the Book

Think of this book as wisdom tips hidden by a father, who has passed on to glory, to his daughter, who is gradually integrating with the society. He does not want her misled or falling short of seasoned counsel when she would need it, so he hides it and hoped she finds it. NOW she has found it, and it has become a valued treasure.

This book was put together to serve as a veritable tool in the hands of young women who desire to have a godly mindset on issues concerning marriage, love, relationship and Godliness.

The counsels are presented as nuggets for easy understanding and memorization. It will serve you well.

Judah Precious

Dear Esther

GOD LOVES YOU

Dear Esther, if all you get to believe at the end of your journey with these nuggets was this, then I would be glad you did. I believe that this nugget is the greatest of all nuggets in this compilation.

It is true that GOD LOVES YOU, and HE said so. I am not trying to make you feel loved or be motivated, the sincere truth is that GOD truly loves you. If you doubt this, read the book of John 15 : 9, 12 and Isaiah 43 : 1 – 4

If HE didn't love you then JESUS would not have shown up on earth, not to think of even dying for your sins. HE LOVES You Helplessly. Be bold to say it to anyone who cares to know that you are loved by GOD.

Do not use the blessings GOD gave you to undo others.

A man had asked GOD to bless him financially to enable him own a car. Soon, his business had a boom and he quickly was able to buy the car he desired. He was very thankful to GOD and celebrated greatly. His children attends same school with his neighbor's daughter. The two households have never had squabbles. Surprisingly, this man never thought it wise to allow his neighbor's daughter to join in the car while he drove his children to school; sometimes he had expressed displeasure when his own wife would ask him to oblige their neighbor but would ask her if he got the car for his neighbor's use. His neighbors realized that he had become pompous and ignored him and all he owned. His blessings didn't bring them joy anymore. The good news was that his neighbor was able to buy a car two years later and he bought a more expensive and beautiful car. The other man still had his car to himself but was jealous of the new car his neighbor had gotten.

We are instructed by GOD, never to withhold good from those who ask us.

Dear Esther

There is no limit to what GOD can do for you.

Think of a man who is in love with a woman, how that he is unable to withhold anything from her, and would give her more than she would ask of him. GOD acts like this towards you. HE genuinely cares about you the way humans do too.

Infact, it is always GOD who causes good things to happen to you. HE also helps you overcome bad things. GOD expresses HIS love in diverse ways, beyond what we can conceive in our thoughts. HE even promised that HE will never abandon you even when you grow old. (Isaiah 46 : 4)

Dear Esther

Please marry a man for his character and not for his career or occupation.

Dear Esther, believe when I say "Marry a man for his character and not his career"

I want you to know that a man's occupation or financial status does not change the kind of man he is in the inside. Anything can happen to his business or career and things would fall apart in your home, if you married him for any of these reasons. But if you marry a man for his character, the things he possess would not determine the success of the marriage.

A good man will always be a good man whether rich or poor, and bad man would remain one, whether rich or poor.

Dear Esther

Always ask WHY, it reveals motives.

The faces of men do not reveal the content of their heart and most times purposes are not revealed in actions.

Dear Esther, it is good that you know why he does what he does. You should know why he wants you; you should know why he cares; you should know why he shows kindness. Just ask him, WHY?

In knowing WHY, you can better appreciate or refuse gestures. It is unsafe to relate with people without knowing WHY.

Dear Esther

Don't be afraid to lose anything, if you compromise to keep it, it will enslave you.

If the pleasure you seek will cost you your joy, stop seeking it. Most especially, if what you want would warrant that you disobey GOD, stop!

NEVER EVER compromise a good virtue in order to please someone, don't try it. Those persons, if in your position may not do same for you.

Don't offend GOD because of your boyfriend or someone you think you love, they wouldn't love you more than GOD does or even care a bit. It is not worth it.

Dear Esther

Before you disobey GOD to please a man, ask yourself,
Can this man do what GOD does for me?

I think this should be a watch-word for you.

Don't offend GOD to please someone.....NO matter who!

GOD SHOULD BE GREATLY FEARED.

Dear Esther

Whatever is gotten by faith must be sustained by faith.

FAITH is the ability to believe that GOD will do what HE promised to do and trusting HIM well enough to do what HE says you should do.

FAITH is a potent currency that purchases spiritual commodities and translates them to physical realities. Therefore, if through faith you obtained a virtue, favor or an expectation, you would require faith to maintain it.

If you believe GOD for honey and it comes, you would have to keep believing for the honey to keep coming.

Dear Esther

It's okay to define love as how you feel about someone at the beginning but then you must grow to the point where you don't only feel it but know it.

Esther, you must know that love is beyond feeling. It is beautiful to feel loved and it is necessary because love is first emotional but then it goes beyond that.

After the feelings, you must get to the point where you love your partner whether you feel right or not. You must also notice that the relationship you share with someone has gone beyond the feeling stage to the practice stage before you would venture into marital commitments.

The feelings are occasional and won't be there always but practicing loving is what it truly means to love. At this point, you know that you are in love or that you are loved. The point where you still care even when you are hurting and won't let go even when you feel like but working hard in love for the welfare of your partner.

Dear Esther

A man will not treat you the same way for a long time.

Esther, you must know that people change, sometimes for reasons they can explain and other times for reasons they don't have control over.

So don't always feel that things will remain the same, especially in a relationship. The more you share life with someone, the more the both of you will unfold. Any of you could get tired for any reason and things could change between you; please make allowance for such flaws and prepare yourself to manage the relationship at such instance.

Sometimes it may appear he loves you less and cares less, try to fix it and not to quit.

Dear Esther

If you can, please don't say about someone what you don't want someone to say about you.

I wish to simply ask you not to do to others what you don't want them to do to you.

I hope you understand this.

Dear Esther

If you have 1000 plus 1 reasons to do wrong but barely one reason to do right, please hold on to that one reason and do right.

Dear Esther, DON'T DO IT. Even when it seems right to do so, please DON'T DO IT.

The wrong we do will gradually build a mountain that would impede us someday and then we regret ever doing. Please DON'T DO IT.

Dear Esther

There will be a day you would wish you were allowed to consummate your lust and not feel guilty; it is common my dear but we keep overcoming those days by the help of the Holy Spirit. You too must overcome.

I pray GOD to help you overcome the temptations that you will face and the ones you are already facing, in JESUS' NAME.

The devil never gives up in finding ways to deceive the saints, that's his job description anyway. So he attacks your flesh to make you feel pressured to compromise your values and make you feel worthless to GOD.

It was for occasions like this that The LORD warns that we follow the prompts and guidance of the Holy Spirit so that we won't fulfil the lust of the flesh.

Dear Esther

GOD wants you to rely on HIM for everything and not on people or yourself.

I was surprised the first time I found in the scriptures a verse that suggests that GOD doesn't want us to succeed without HIM.

In Proverbs 3:5-6, we were cautioned with these words—
"trust in The LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways submit to HIM, and HE will make your paths straight"

Psalms 37:4 says delight yourself in the LORD; and HE will give you the desires of your heart.

Dear Esther

Sometimes the best way to convince a man or to get his attention is by prayer and fasting. It's an option to explore too.

Listen to me Dear Esther, it is written in the book of Proverbs 21:1, that the king's heart is like channels of water in the hand of The LORD; HE turns it whichever way HE wishes.

This scripture gives us the assurance that GOD controls the heart of humans, that includes your partner/ spouse. Learn to make use of your advantages as a Christian; use spiritual influence over physical challenges.

Dear Esther

When you please the king, he will grant the desires of your heart.

I am forced to remember the cruel death of John the Baptist. This man of GOD was beheaded because a young girl danced to the satisfaction of a king. The king even offered to give her half of his kingdom just because she pleased him with her dancing.

Whenever a man is pleased, he can grant the most awkward of requests. It is a gainful wisdom to know how to please your king.

Dear Esther

If you can imagine it, then GOD can do it.

I get excited reading the book of Jeremiah 32 : 27, there GOD says "I AM The LORD, the GOD of all flesh. Is anything too hard for me?"

The answer is NO! there is absolutely nothing too hard for GOD to do. HE may choose not to do it but doesn't mean HE can't do it. HE is all powerful and Mighty. GOD can do anything for you. Believe it.

Dear Esther

When you feel weak to pray, that's when to pray.

Never forget what Jesus Christ taught us in order that we may pray always and never faint... so HE says.. Men ought always to pray and not to faint. Luke 18:1

Personally, I have had moments when I felt weak to pray but then I dared to pray; and when I started praying, I got strengthened to continue. This has happened severally.

When you feel overwhelmed by challenges, please dare to pray, even when you don't feel like it.

Dear Esther

GOD doesn't like to be a second choice, HE likes to be consulted first before you take action.

Can you even imagine that lots of people only seek GOD after all other plans have gone wrong. Who will ever be happy with being the last option? Your first line of course is your desired choice and if that's not GOD, then HE doesn't want to be involved at all.

Dear Esther

If you honor GOD, HE will honor you.

My dear, I have come to know that whatever you sacrifice for the sake of obedience to GOD, HE will repay you multiple times, especially to show off HIS power and glory in your life.

GOD honors those who honor HIM. Yes!

Dear Esther

Believe what GOD says, not what you think nor what elders say because they have experience.

If there is a matter of concern and you desire guidance, it is wise that you commit the issue to prayer; this will mean that you value the input of The Holy Spirit. Allow HIM be the one to direct you on what to do. HE may choose to tell you what to do expressly or would direct you to certain person(s) who HE has endowed with requisite wisdom to guide you.

Don't depend on the wisdom of men or depend on your own experiences, these will not guarantee consistent excellent outcomes. Depend on the Holy Spirit. HE is your advantage.

Dear Esther

If your heart condemns anything but others are at liberty doing it, please hold on to your own heart, maybe The LORD is the reason for the resistance.

Severally, I have heard The LORD whisper in my spirit... "Follow your heart!" In diverse occasions, the only counsel I have given to people is the same instruction I have received... "Follow your heart!"

For every believer, the work of The Holy Spirit is to purify your heart and to make it a reliable tool of guidance. By the time The LORD has purged your heart, it becomes a great asset to you. So whenever your heart gives you a restraining prompt, please adhere to it, it is always for your good.

Dear Esther

If you ever get into any trouble, bow your head and pray sincerely to GOD, HE won't ignore you.

In Psalm 50:15, The LORD says to us "call upon ME in the day of trouble, and I will deliver you..."

In Jeremiah 33:3, GOD made us a promise... HE says "call unto ME and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know."

Now this is our confidence that we have in HIM, that if we ask anything according to HIS will, HE hears us. 1 John 5:14

These promises are the reasons why we pray.

Dear Esther

GOD KNOWS YOU, HE KNOWS EVERYTHING ABOUT YOU.

One of the characteristics of our GOD is that HE IS OMNISCIENT. HE IS ALSO OMNIPRESENT.

HE knows all things and HE is everywhere.

HE knows your weaknesses and strength.

HE knows your history and future.

HE knows when you are wrong and right.

HE knows what is good for you and what isn't.

You can Trust HIM with your life!

Dear Esther

When you fear something, it is a neglect to GOD. HE doesn't want you to have fear about anything. HE IS THE MOST DANGEROUS AND YET THE MOST LOVING BEING IN EXISTENCE. Nothing should frighten you.

I have not seen a child who is afraid of her adversary when walking with her father. She believes that everything is going to be in her favor and would trust that her father is able to contend with the adversary.

It would be rather strange when a child still fears her adversary in the presence of her father. It would mean she doesn't trust her father to be a suitable match for the adversary. That would hurt the father, especially when he has the power to conquer the adversary.

This is exactly how our heavenly FATHER feels when we fear the devil in HIS Presence.

Dear Esther

GOD allows challenges come your way in order to make you and not to mar you. Remember that everything works for your good. Whether seeming good or bad.

Dear Esther, please allow it sink in your heart that GOD is never responsible for your temptations; HE only steps in to help you overcome them. HE is always on your side. HE would not orchestrate a challenge for you and then turn the other way round and pretend to save you from it. What would that make of HIM? So, never blame GOD for your trials but Thank HIM for always showing up on time for your rescue.

But GOD uses the challenges that come your way to show the devil how weak he is. HE would convert the rock that was set to bruise your foot to stepping stone that helps you see farther.

Dear Esther

27

The way humans protect their treasure from thieves, that's how much and much more GOD protects you because you are HIS treasure.

Psalm 27: 5-6 says "For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion; In the secret place of His tabernacle He shall hide me; He shall set me high upon a rock. 6 And now my head shall be [c]lifted up above my enemies all around me;.."

When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you. Isaiah 43:2

There are lots of scriptures that affirms that GOD considers us as treasures and protects us as such. In fact it's interesting to read Isaiah 43:4 "Since you were precious in My sight, You have been honored, And I have loved you; Therefore I will give men for you, And people for your life."

Dear Esther

Believe that GOD means every word HE ever said in the scriptures and the ones HE says to you in revelations.

Esther, Please don't take GOD's instructions for granted. HE is not like men who say what they don't mean nor mean what they say. HE IS GOD, HE NEVER JOKES. If GOD was to joke, HE would need a being in HIS class to be able to do so but unfortunately, there is no being in HIS level, HE IS GOD ALL BY HIMSELF.

Take HIM by HIS Word. HIS Word is HIS Bond.

Dear Esther

Try the much you can to be part of other people's success story.

Dear Esther, listen to me today, do not be the kind of girl that enjoys what people do for her but never does anything remarkable for anyone.

Count it joy to inconvenience yourself in order to put smiles on the faces of those around you. Make people know that you truly love them by the way you treat them.

Show genuine concern and make sure you play major roles when your friends and well wishers need a helping hand.

The beauty of life is expressed most when we love others and not when we are loved.

Dear Esther

If something goes wrong with your relationships fix it, don't be too fast to trash people.

Allow me echo this point to you- If something goes wrong with your relationships fix it, don't be too fast to trash people.

I hope you adhere to this, it will save you much hurt.

Dear Esther

What can a smile do? It can make you find great favor, don't hold back that smile.

Please read that point again and again and one time. A smile can draw the whole world to you.

Dear Esther

You are the JESUS people see. Represent HIM well.

Esther, you are not a Christian until people see JESUS in you. And JESUS can't be seen in you if you don't obey HIM.

Would you love to be the JESUS people see? Then learn from the scriptures the life of Christ and by prayer and obedience you can live the life of Christ in its fullness.

Dear Esther

When you do get married, please make your home a haven for your husband. He would be grateful if you do.

Please adhere!

A sweet home they say is the function of the woman managing it. A man would love to have a peaceful home and not have the ability to build it, that's what you can help him achieve.

Dear Esther

Follow your heart!

Dear Esther, after you must have prayed about a matter, learn to FOLLOW YOUR HEART!

Many a times The LORD will drop strong promptings in your heart, follow it. It will only lead you to the right destination.

Dear Esther

35

Don't do wrong because others are doing it, you are the target not them. It's you the devil wants to destroy.

I need you to understand that the devil would stop at nothing to ensure he destroys your affection and relationship with The Holy Spirit. That is what he longs for.

Sometimes the devil will lure you into sin through friends. He makes them commit evil and go scot free. They will continue in it and never have issues. This is a trap to make you join them and when you do, things must go wrong so that you are implicated and excommunicated. If the devil can't kill you, he wants to at least make you uncomfortable on earth.

The bible says in proverbs, if sinners entice you don't yield. Please don't yield to that trap, even when they tell you it is safe.

Dear Esther

GOD deposited every ability you would need in you. You have all you need.

Please commit this nugget to memory!

Dear Esther

There is power in the Name of JESUS, Use it.

In other words, never stop praying.

Dear Esther

There is a virtue called SELF CONTROL, it is the ability to hold back your feeling, action or reaction for good. You need it.

The bible reveals that a man with self control is better than one who is strong enough to defeat a whole city. Proverb 16:32

Believe me, as Christians, we are not at liberty to do what we wish but what pleases GOD. Control your yearning for pleasure, it will save your life.

Dear Esther

There is a virtue called PATIENCE, it is the ability to hold on and not change course because the desired outcome has not materialized. You need it.

This is so important Dear Esther; do you also know that the Holy Spirit is the one who gives us the ability for patience? Yes, HE is. So if you observe yourself and find a trace of impatience, pray unrelentingly about it, asking our FATHER to grant you grace for patience.

James 1:4 says 'let patience have its perfect work, so that you may be perfect and entire, failing in nothing.'

Dear Esther

There is a virtue called LOVE, it is the ability to prefer others to yourself. It is the greatest virtue, only a few demonstrate it. You should be among the few.

Let me not tell you what I think about love, it's inconsequential; but you must not ignore what GOD commands about love. The following verses should guide you:

Romans 12:9 Don't just pretend to love others. Really love them....

Matthew 22:37-39 talks about you loving GOD with your everything and then loving people as much as you love yourself

1John 4:8 says GOD is love and all who live in love live in GOD....

Love the man you marry; do so with all your heart.

Dear Esther

When you do marry, please Marry a Christian!

Esther, this is non-negotiable. Doing otherwise is dishonoring to the body of Christ and to your body. The better way to express this point is this... when Adam saw Eve, he said this is the flesh of my flesh and bone of my bone... He knew he was not in anyway supposed to be associated martially with animals even when the woman was not yet created.

It is not right for a Christian to marry someone who does not honor Jesus Christ. It is like Lion getting married to Goat.

1 Cor 7:15 -16

2 Cor. 6:14 -16

Dear Esther

There is a virtue called KINDNESS, it is the ability to relieve others of their burden in order for them to be better. It is a good virtue. You need it.

We are commanded to be kind to one another, tenderhearted and forgiving one another in Ephesians 4:32.

It is an instruction, so you and every other believer are bound to obey it. Please do

Kindness endears us to the heart of others.

Dear Esther

There is a virtue called BROTHERLINESS, it is the ability to work as a team with others for a common good. You need it.

It is wrong to think of yourself highly than others. Try to be at peace working with others and respect everyone that comes your way. This will take you far in the journey of life.

Dear Esther

You are GOD's priority.

Read Isaiah 43: 2 - 5

Dear Esther

You can do anything if you work and walk with The Holy Spirit.

Working and Walking with the Holy Spirit literally means to physically work and walk in the company of Jesus Christ HIMSELF.

Could you imagine any impossibility when HE IS THERE?
NO!

Dear Esther

Learn not to complain when things are tough but rather trust GOD to make a way.

Please adhere. You will not accomplish anything by complaining. To complain is not the same as praying. It is better to pray and not to complain. Complaining will make you feel right but it doesn't make things right.

So pray instead of complaining.

Dear Esther

Do not let your emotions override your faith.

Esther, if that day comes, when your emotions are too attached to someone, so much that you really do not mind if it compromises your faith work with GOD, I pray the Holy Spirit to deliver you and restore you in Jesus' Name.

But then, do not let your emotions make more sense to you than the word of GOD does.

Dear Esther

Mind what you say; but mind much more how you say it and where you say it.

I have come to know that the problem people encounter with words are most times not because of what they said but how they said it, when they said it, to whom they said it and where they said it.

You are mature when you are able to control what you say.

Read Psalms 34:12 – 13; Proverbs 12:8; Proverbs 16:23-24

James 3:2 says If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man and able also to bridle the whole body.

Dear Esther

There is a virtue called ENDURANCE, it is the ability to keep going when the condition is harsh and seemingly unfavorable.

Please read Hebrews 10:36

Dear Esther

See people the way you see yourself in making mistakes.
That way you won't think low of others.

It is not good to crucify someone for an offence you could also commit or have even committed before, but you feel safe because you were not caught.

Imagine a girl who have had several abortions condemning another girl who had a child out of wedlock. That's silly.

Please try your best not to condemn people but help them where you can.

Dear Esther

Let the world see JESUS in your eyes.

Esther, It is my desire that people will know Jesus because of you.

Dear Esther

A man who does not know his purpose will frustrate you.

I believe that a woman is supposed to help a man become what he is made to be. It's a lot easier if you find a man who knows what he is supposed to be so that you two can have a focused sail. If you marry a man who has not found direction, you will surely be unsatisfied; because you will have nothing to contribute to him. You were made to help and not to lead.

Dear Esther

Marriage is about meeting the needs of your partner and not yours.

The way forward to a successful relationship is when one considers the other as most important and the other person also considers the one as most important. Meeting the needs of each other becomes so easy with this mentality.

Dear Esther

You should know that every man ought to be treated as a king and every woman ought to be treated as a queen.

You know that the king is the husband to the queen. They need each other to reign. There is a chance that the man you treat as king will treat you as queen.

Dear Esther

Please do not say what you don't mean, it is not in the character of queens.

Please adhere!

Dear Esther

You should know that a man you respect and support will naturally stake his life for yours and be grateful he did.

In books it is said that men interpret respect as love and in reality it is TRUE. Men love being respected and honored. They spend more time with those who honor them than with those who claim to love them without honor.

Dear Esther

Men do not marry inner beauty, they marry what they see. You should allow your inner beauty to be expressed for men to see. Don't be kind in your mind, be kind outwardly. Don't be good in your mind, be good outwardly.

Please adhere!

Dear Esther

Don't let your husband fail, do something. Help him please.

The reason a man marries a woman is to be helped. If you are not helping him then you are not marrying him. To marry him is to help him.

When you find a flaw, help him.

When you foresee danger, save him

When he is confused, guide him

Remember that He is your husband and you are marrying him.

Dear Esther

Your good and bad experiences will serve you well, there is a reason GOD allowed it happen to you.

To compensate for the inconvenience of wrong done to you, GOD has promised to give you double blessings.... It is written this way "for your shame I will give you double"

So GOD is always turning everything to work for your good and to bring you to your expected end.

Dear Esther

The litmus test for love is intimacy built through communication.

Dear Esther, you will realize that consistent communication with someone quickly builds bond. Decide today to build affection through communication and not by sexual entanglements.

You must know that too many people think that sex is the easier way to bond with a male. Don't listen to them.

A relationship built in the fear of GOD is preserved by GOD.

Dear Esther

If he says he loves you but you do not feel it then he truly doesn't.

Trust me on this one, someone cannot love you and you wouldn't know. A man doesn't love you because he said "I love you", he loves you when he works hard for your welfare. Love is not hidden and cannot be hidden.

Look out for how much time he wants to spend with you and how well he wants to make you succeed in what you have purposed to do.

Dear Esther

There is nothing too small to pray about, don't lean on your understanding.

Proverbs 3:5-6 says TRUST in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge HIM, and HE will make your paths straight.

Do not ignore!

Dear Esther

Love is a miracle, appreciate it.

Dear Esther, LOVE IS A MIRACLE!

I can't explain why we love those we love and sometimes careless about those who love us.

A man somewhere truly cares about a woman but she cares about another. My question is, what makes people love who they love and not who wants them to love them?

You should appreciate every act of love shown you.

Dear Esther

Sex is a trap in relationship, it boycotts sane reasoning.

Esther, GOD has warned that we should not be involved in sexual sin, if you truly serve GOD, then you would respect that.

Sex really doesn't make people love each other, like you would hear people suggest. It makes people hurt each other when done before marriage.

Dear Esther

DON'T lie to yourself

It will do you good to be honest to yourself.

Don't pretend to be who you are not

Don't deceive people because you want their approval

Don't act like you know what you don't know

Be honest to yourself so that GOD can help you through people.

Dear Esther

Learn how to take good care of your body. Treat and manage infections promptly.

Dear Esther, you are queen!

You should be careful with your health and your fragrance.

Be intentional about your wellbeing, your king needs you healthy, so you ought to be healthy.

Be prompt to attend to infections and other sources of inconvenience.

Dear Esther

Some persons like you, some admire you and some need you; please pay more attention to those who need you.

I wish you would read this nugget again until you are conscious of it.

Dear Esther

Don't let your heart believe that GOD has refused to help you at any point in life. HE NEVER ABANDONS HIS OWN.

I know that sometimes, life may seem uneasy and you would need a quick response from GOD. If it doesn't happen the way you desire it, it hurts your faith, I know. Please don't let anything hurt your faith in GOD, trust HIM even when it's hard to trust. It's safer to TRUST GOD than not to.

Dear Esther

If you love him, you will naturally love to pray for him.

Yea, this is a natural occurrence for believers in love. You will always have the zeal to pray for the person you love.

If you never get the prompt, then you truly don't care about him.

Dear Esther

Train yourself to always obey the Word of GOD, start by taking a decision to always do whatever the bible says you should do

The word is TRAIN.

To train would require physical, emotional, and mental effort.

Whatever virtue you want to develop in your life, you would literally work hard against all odds to covet it. One necessary habit you must desire is that of OBEDIENCE to GOD. Please obey GOD.

Dear Esther

If they place you and everything else in this world before GOD to make a choice, HE would choose you above all else a million times.

In other words, GOD loves you greatly and HE is not ashamed to say it.

HE calls you the Apple of HIS Eyes.

Dear Esther

When you marry, remember that you were designed to help the man fulfil whatever assignment GOD has given him. Your fulfilment lies in his fulfilment.

I thought I should remind you of this, it's important that you know it.

Please help him fulfil his vision. Remember that Eve was made for Adam because it was not good for Adam to be alone.

Let your husband not be alone when you are there.

Dear Esther

You are a helpmeet... prepare for the task ahead.

Esther, having said much about your role in marriage as a support system, it will serve you well to begin to prepare yourself for that role.

Read and learn how women who were supportive to their husbands succeeded.

Pray and be empowered by The Holy Ghost to marry your own husband. Experiences differ in homes, so your most reliable counselor is The Holy Ghost.

Dear Esther

Build your own joy, peace and happiness, don't let people control how you feel.

Dear Esther, I beg you in the name of The LORD, try your best to be in-charge of your joy. It is unsafe for your emotions to be tossed to-and-fro by peoples actions and reactions.

I'm led to pray for you, I ask in Jesus' Name that you receive divine insight on how to preserve your joy, peace and happiness.

Dear Esther

Be thankful at all times. Those who thank GOD for everything see GOD in everything.

Let me whisper this to your ears my dear, GOD loves thankful people, HE usually gives them more blessings, so that they will come and thank HIM again. HE loves to be thanked, so are men too.

Dear Esther

If you want favor with both GOD and man, and a reputation for good judgment and common sense, then trust the LORD completely; don't ever trust yourself. In everything you do, put GOD first, and HE will direct you and crown your efforts with success. Proverbs 3:4,6

The highlights from that scripture include:

Trust GOD completely

Never trust yourself

Dear Esther

It is a disastrous risk to choose a partner on the basis of sexual satisfaction and your personal comfort.

My dear, listen to me and be wise; if you choose a partner for physical satisfaction, then you will get physical satisfaction. But if you choose a partner because of GOD, there will be no limit to what you can achieve in that marriage. Too many things will be made possible.

Dear Esther

Matthew 6:33 is the principle that answers to everything you will need in this life

Matthew 6:33 says

Seek the Kingdom of GOD above all else, and live righteously, and HE will give you everything you need.

Dear Esther

Don't ever beg for love. Don't try it my Dear.

Dear Esther, you would hurt yourself so bad if you force someone to love you, maybe because you seem to love the person.

Now listen, if you coerce him to love you, you will have to coerce him for the rest of your life; and that's a burden you don't want to be entangled with.

If a man doesn't fancy you, go on with your life. Remember, you also would not fancy everyone who desires you.

Dear Esther

Associate with the kind of women you desire to be like. It has a way of materializing your desire quickly.

If you walk with the wise, you will be wise.

If you walk with fools, you will be foolish.

If you walk with the wealthy, you will be wealthy

Your association influences your outcome.

Dear Esther

Do not forget that Queen Vashti was dethroned because of Disrespect for her husband and King. Do not repeat history.

Simple truth: If you want your partner to detest you, disrespect him. I promise you, it will take a life time, except GOD intervenes, for him to ever love you truly, even if you apologize. Don't play with a man's honor. Respect is his honor.

Dear Esther

You should look beautiful.. May there be no day when you don't look beautiful.

Beauty is the trademark of Queens!

If you make it a habit to always look beautiful, you will realize your partner will hardly want to stay away from you. Beauty attracts men the way flowers attract butterfly.

Dear Esther

Every man has the privilege to choose from billions of ladies on earth, why should he choose you?

Dear Esther,

I want you to ask yourself the following question before you say YES to a proposal:

What can I do for him?

Do I have what it takes to make him better?

Can the knowledge I have gathered sustain his presence?
Am I the right woman for him, considering his personality?

This will guide you to know if you are the right woman for him. Sometimes they only come because you are beautiful, you may not be the right woman for them.

Dear Esther

If you are kind to people, people will be kind to you, not necessarily those you showed kindness.

You may get back what you give, but if you don't get it back still give anyway. We give because we have and not because we want.

Dear Esther

You must be Lovely. It is a good thing to be loveable. People love to come around queens because they see them as graceful and not quarrelsome.

The bible says it is better to live on the roof top than share a house with a quarrelsome wife. Proverbs 21:9

It doesn't cost you anything to be lovely. It is only those who feel stupid being nice that love quarrel and war. Some persons are like that, they are not queens; they are not you. You are a queen.

Dear Esther

You must obey instructions if you want to win.

Do you know why Esther was chosen to replace Vashti? It was because she paid attention to the instructions of Hegai, the one who prepares damsels for the king and she also paid attention to Mordecai, her uncle. She won because she obeyed specific instructions.

Meanwhile, Queen Vashti lost her throne because of Disobedience.

Dear Esther

Always remember this: All the people who did not become what they wanted to be in this life were those who stopped trying or found a reason to quit. All those who became what they wanted to be were those who found no reason to quit or stop trying.

No matter what, DON'T STOP.

You will find what you seek if you don't stop. Deal with the dangers that arise, deal with the trials and distractions but DON'T STOP.

Dear Esther

You must know that sin becomes more powerful when you hide it.

Here lies the trick of the devil..... Secret faults are usually hard to break free from because people who would have helped you are not even aware you've got such challenge. If people know you steal, they will hide their properties from you, that way you won't find items to steal. But if they don't know you steal, they will unknowingly keep sponsoring the habit until you go worse into armed robbery. Demons are progressive in oppression. They will usually lead people from one level of evil to higher levels.

So it is safer not to hide your faults.

Dear Esther

The conclusion of the whole issues of life is to FEAR GOD and keep HIS commandments.

In this life and here after, My dear, do not forget to honor GOD in all you do. Again I say, OBEY HIM.

Dear Esther

If the thing you are seeking after will not glorify GOD, convince yourself that you do not need it

Esther, Read it again!

Please read it loud!

Hahaha!! You know it's true.

Dear Esther

One of the ways to overcome jealousy towards others is to support them.

I found this by the help of the Holy Spirit.

Sometimes you may find yourself being jealous of someone for no justifiable reason. It's the devil, he does that to make you feel awful about yourself. To overcome it, find a way to support whatever someone is doing that is attracting the jealousy. Do it deliberately and prayerfully, the weight will leave your heart and love will be exalted again. This is the true spiritual warfare we face.

Dear Esther

Please choose a partner for more of what you can do for him and less of what he can do for you.

Do you know that very few women have access to this counsel and it is a potent one. Let it be in your consciousness.

Dear Esther

To love is War, only the brave survive it.

Dear Esther, since the day you genuinely fall in love with someone, you have just started war with the devil because he is anti-love. He doesn't want people to be in love. He is for war.

All the trials you will face are attempts made to crumble what you have, but The LORD will always rise for your preservation in Jesus' Name.

Dear Esther

In a man's eyes, you are as beautiful as you are obedient. That is to say, that obedience is the beauty men see and not just the face.

Have you ever seen a handsome wicked man before? what do you really see when you look at him, his handsomeness or his wicked acts?

That's how you know that people who know you do not see your face but your character.

Your beauty is in your attitude!

Dear Esther

There are sacrifices you must make and sometimes you may feel uneasy making these sacrifices. One of such is to dress appropriately in a world where nudity is applauded. ONLY QUEENS BEAR THIS BURDEN

I wish you could see my face full of smile Hahaha!!!

Please dress well everyday, with no intention of seduction. You will do well.

Dear Esther

The quality of a product determines its price tag, and the price tag determines who can afford it.

Let me use cars to explain this. There are different brands and models of cars and people are in different levels of financial capacity. The higher your income, the more likelihood you would own more valuable cars. So the price tag of the cars determine who buys them.

Your value would determine who would come for you. The more valuable you are, the higher your price tag.

Dear Esther

Men are like knights who love to look for treasure, they do not appreciate it thrown at them.

Dear Esther, please know that men love to be the chaser and not the chased.

They love to conquer with their hands, it makes them feed their personality with the necessary ego that validates their masculinity. If they don't get it this way, they think the item is of less worth.

You don't want to be that item that is of less value.

Dear Esther

Marriage should not be your desired escape from financial struggles, it is sweeter when you have to give than to receive from a man. He honors you more.

I guess you will have to memorize this particular nugget, so that you would teach those around you too.

Work, Earn and Give.

That's the life humans were devoted to. Dependence is not natural. There is no animal that depend on its mate for survival, except for a season and for a reason, which doesn't include marriage.

Dear Esther

The woman her husband abuses is the one who depends on him for everything.

Straight up!

When you depend on someone for everything, they soon get weary of you and abuse you.

Dear Esther

When peer pressure compels you to go with the crowd and sinners invite you to join in, you must simply say, "No!" Proverbs 1:10 TPT

Esther, you are that one girl that GOD is trusting to be a super model for the Kingdom. You won't disappoint.

The background of the entire page is a soft, pinkish-red color with a subtle pattern of cherry blossoms and branches. The blossoms are light pink with darker pink centers, and the branches are a darker shade of pink. The overall effect is a gentle, romantic, and slightly melancholic atmosphere.

Goodbye Esther

The End

Let Me Pray for you

It's in the Name of Jesus, the Son of GOD I pray:

You shall be an example of what a proper woman looks like.

You shall be a strong influence over your contemporaries.

The LORD will teach you by the Holy Spirit and guide you through the best path for your life.

You shall not be ashamed.

GOD will honor you as you honor HIM.

Your marriage will be sweet and prosperous.

No weapon formed against you shall prosper.

Your days on earth shall be glorious.

AMEN.

Appreciation

I didn't develop most of these nuggets, The Holy Spirit inspired them, so I sincerely give HIM thanks for reaching out to us via these nuggets to save our lives from trouble.

I joyfully appreciate the effort of certain ladies who contributed in different capacities to the development of this material; chief of whom are Mrs Esther Lati Chibuzor, Mrs Adaeze Ebenezer and Mrs Elizabeth Oguru.

I wish to thank myself, Judah Precious, for pulling this through; and to thank you too for reading this material.

THE AUTHOR

Judah Precious is a gospel music minister, who also is graced with the ability to communicate the word of GOD with clarity to his listeners. He is touched by the effect of the worsening societal depravity and how young people soon lose their value for GOD and HIS Kingdom, so he creates means to reach to them in the Name of Jesus Christ, the son of GOD.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Human physiology and a Master of science degree in Public Health; He currently lives in Port Harcourt, Nigeria, where he works as a health researcher and data analyst.

Judah Precious, whose official name is Obuah Precious Uchenna, is from Elele in Rivers State, Nigeria.
